📝 English Grammar – Paragraphs & Letters

Multiple-Choice Questions (25 items)

Choose the best answer from A–D.

1. A paragraph that tells a story in time order is called a:

1. Descriptive paragraph
2. Narrative paragraph
3. Expository paragraph
4. Persuasive paragraph

2. A paragraph that explains how to do something is:

1. Narrative
2. Expository
3. Descriptive
4. Persuasive

3. A paragraph that tries to convince the reader to agree with an opinion is:

1. Narrative
2. Descriptive
3. Persuasive
4. Expository

4. A paragraph that focuses on sensory details (sight, smell, sound, etc.) is:

1. Narrative
2. Descriptive
3. Expository
4. Persuasive

5. The main idea of a paragraph is usually found in the:

1. Supporting sentences
2. Topic sentence

3. Concluding sentence
4. Title

6. Which sentence best describes a topic sentence?

1. A sentence that ends the paragraph
2. A sentence that introduces the main idea
3. A sentence that gives examples
4. A sentence that repeats the conclusion

7. A paragraph that compares two things belongs to which type?

1. Narrative
2. Descriptive
3. Expository
4. Persuasive

8. A paragraph that shows cause and effect belongs to:

1. Narrative writing
2. Expository writing
3. Descriptive writing
4. Persuasive writing

9. A concluding sentence should:

1. Introduce new ideas
2. Repeat the topic sentence word for word
3. Summarize or close the paragraph
4. Add unrelated information

10. Which of the following is NOT a characteristic of a good paragraph?

1. Unity
2. Coherence
3. Irrelevant details

4. Adequate development

Letter Writing

11. A letter written to a friend is an example of a:

1. Formal letter
2. Informal letter
3. Business letter
4. Official letter

12. A letter written to a school principal is a:

1. Informal letter
2. Friendly letter
3. Formal letter
4. Personal letter

13. The part of a letter that contains the writer's address is called the:

1. Salutation
2. Heading
3. Body
4. Signature

14. "Dear Sir/Madam," is an example of a:

1. Closing
2. Heading
3. Salutation
4. Signature

15. The main message of a letter is written in the:

1. Heading
2. Body
3. Closing

4. Signature

16. “Yours faithfully,” is used in:

1. Informal letters
2. Friendly letters
3. Formal letters
4. Personal letters

17. Which of the following is appropriate for an informal letter?

1. Dear Sir
2. Yours sincerely
3. Dear Mom
4. To whom it may concern

18. A business letter is usually written for:

1. Personal communication
2. Academic storytelling
3. Professional or official purposes
4. Describing a place

19. The closing of a letter appears:

1. Before the salutation
2. After the signature
3. Before the signature
4. At the top of the letter

20. Which of the following is a feature of a formal letter?

1. Slang language
2. Casual tone
3. Clear and polite language
4. Emotional expressions

Mixed Concepts

21. A paragraph that gives instructions belongs to:

1. Narrative writing
2. Descriptive writing
3. Expository writing
4. Persuasive writing

22. A letter complaining about poor service is a:

1. Friendly letter
2. Informal letter
3. Formal letter
4. Narrative letter

23. A paragraph with smooth flow between sentences shows:

1. Coherence
2. Length
3. Dialogue
4. Tone

24. The purpose of a persuasive paragraph is to:

1. Describe a scene
2. Tell a story
3. Explain a process
4. Influence the reader's opinion

25. Which of the following is used in both paragraphs and letters?

1. Salutation
2. Topic sentence
3. Signature
4. Closing